Liturgy of the Week—Liturgia de la Semana 1/5/2020

STEWARDS OF GOD'S GRACE

Saint Paul speaks of the “stewardship of God’s grace” to which he was called. Like Saint Paul, each of us is to be a steward of God’s grace. A steward is one who is entrusted with something that belongs to another. The steward bears responsibility for what is entrusted to him or her. Saint Paul understands that his encounter with the Lord and his faith in Jesus Christ carry with them a sacred responsibility, to bring the news of salvation to all. We too have been blessed with much, including the gift of faith, and are called to be good stewards of all with which we have been entrusted. We do this by nurturing a faithful and faith-filled heart, responding to God’s grace through the attitudes and actions that make up our daily lives. We do this as well by sharing our faith and the impact of faith with others, so that they may be drawn to our Lord. This is a sacred responsibility, a blessing, a privilege.

The Epiphany of the Lord Jesus' manifestation is recognized.

Have you ever been in Bethlehem (Palestine)?

When the pilgrims enter in the Basilica of the Nativity hear the guider explain the stories about the diverse destructions the basilica suffered due to wars and invasions.

Once, during the Persian invasion, the Persian soldiers did not destroy the interior of the church, because they saw on the walls representations of knights dressed like Persian Kings or Sheikhs. The images of the characters were the ones mentioned by Matthew 1:1-12 Magi from the East carrying gold, frankincense and myrrh arrived in Jerusalem. Those men were representing their races recognizing Jesus as their own new king.

Sunday of the Word of God

You already know the Bible in Greek language means books. Because there are 73 books (46+27). On September 30th, 2019 Pope Francis wrote about the importance of the Bible. This Apostolic Letter Aperuit illis is the kind of written you can read fast. Fast reading does not mean without paying attention. It was Saint Jerome who provoke the Pope to make an invitation of all Christianity (at least the Apostolic Roman Catholic Church) to celebrate the Sunday of the Word of God: on the

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time. (#3)

Pope Francis begins his exhortation with Emmaus story. "He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures" (Luke 24:45).

#8 the Lord, present in our midst, who speaks to us and nourishes us. A day devoted to the Bible should not be seen as a yearly event but rather a year-long event, for we urgently need to grow in our knowledge and love of the Scriptures.

Pedernal del P. Juan

¿Ha estado usted en Bethlehem (Belén-Palestina)?

Cuando los peregrinos entran en la Basílica de la Natividad oyen al guía la historia de las sucesivas destrucciones que esta ha sufrido debido a las guerras e invasiones.

La vez que hubo invasión de persa, los guerreros persas no destruyeron el interior de la iglesia porque vieron la representación de unos caballeros con Ropajes de Persia como reyes o jeques.

Eran los personajes mencionados por Mateo 2,1-12 unos Magos de Oriente con oro, incienso y mirra representados en los mosaicos de las paredes.

Aquellos hombres representaban a sus razas reconociendo a Jesús como su nuevo Rey.

Domingo de la Palabra de Dios

Usted sabrá que Biblia en griego significa LIBROS, y no 2, sino que son 73 libros (46+27). El pasado 30 de septiembre el Papa Francisco publicó, sobre la importancia de la Biblia, la Carta Apostólica Aperuit illis.

Un documento de fácil lectura, lo que no quiere decir sin prestar atención. Fue san Jerónimo quien provocó al Papa hacer una invitación a toda la Cristiandad (al menos a la Iglesia Católica Apostólica Romana) para que se celebre el Domingo de la Palabra de Dios, en el

III Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario (# 3)

Francisco inicia la exhortación con el pasaje de Emaús.

«Les abrió el entendimiento para comprender las Escrituras» (Lc 24,45).

#8 la presencia del Señor en medio de nosotros que nos

habla y nos nutre. El día dedicado a la Biblia no ha de ser "una vez al año", sino una vez para todo el año, porque nos urge la necesidad de tener familiaridad e intimidad con la Sagrada Escritura.
